

Dear Client

We are following up on our initial notice dated February 28, 2024, with Header : Changes to our Banking Products applicable to Corporate Customers.

We would like to inform you about the amendments we have made to our initial notice :

1. Local Currency (MUR) Bank Drafts (Cashier's Orders): We have decided to continue providing this service without any change. For the applicable charges for this product, please refer to the our published tariff of charges.
2. Cheque Books: We will cease issuing new cheque books from May 1, 2024, instead of the previously communicated date of March 31, 2024. Furthermore, effective July 1, 2024, we will discontinue its support for cheque issuance and clearing services of our cheques.

Exceptional clearing service will be available only for cheques dated prior and up to June 30, 2024, which will remain valid for a period of 1 year and therefore will be cleared by us if presented within this timeframe.

We appreciate your attention to these changes and should you have any inquiries or require further clarification, we recommend contacting your Relationship Manager or a representative from the Global Payments Solutions team.
